Mystery Guest

What level of customer service do your guests experience?

Our rigorous mystery guest assessment captures the complete hotel experience from reservation to check-out, identifying weaknesses and strengths.

Within 24 hours of checkout the mystery guest report is delivered containing comprehensive feedback on the experience.

We can improve operational standards by ensuring each Staff member consistently delivers excellent service, making you stand out from your competitors.

Our mystery guest assessment also provides feedback on missed sales opportunities observed throughout the stay, helping make your business more profitable.

Our unbiased customer feedback will increase your average booking value by ensuring every sales opportunity is maximised.

Mystery Sales Enquiries

Does your sales team handle every sales enquiry to its full potential?

We can measure the effectiveness of your sales team by placing sales enquiries into your business and assessing the quality of the enquiry response.

Our mystery sales enquiries provide detailed feedback about the service and selling skills displayed by your team members. Providing feedback on the customer experience ensures your team offers a consistent service and reduces the number of missed sales opportunities.

Identifying and reducing missed sales opportunities makes your business stand out from your competitors and increases profitability.

Each sales enquiry is emailed directly to you complete with digital recording and comprehensive evaluation report.

Customer Feedback

What are your customers telling you about their customer service experience?

Our flexible and powerful customer feedback application instantly updates you with customer feedback. The application is compatible with the latest smart phones and computers.

Customer feedback trends are reported to you helping building a picture of customer service.

Our online customer feedback application can work in tandem with conventional customer feedback cards. The feedback questionnaire content is completely flexible to your specific requirements.

Our feedback application also captures guest contact details, enabling you to keep them informed of news and future offers. This can help make your business more profitable.
